Eco Art on Island

May 17 - November 2

Saturdays & Sundays | 11:00 AM - 5:00 PM

or by appointment

House 17, Nolan Park, Governors Island

Free!

Join TAAC for Eco Art on Island, a series of art exhibitions that explores our shared responsibility in the climate crisis.

Uniting artists, mental health professionals, and environmental experts, the project highlights how climate change impacts mental health and demands creative, collective action.

GETTING THERE

Governors Island is only accessible by ferry and departs from Wall St/Pier 11.

The ferry is free before 11:30 AM on Saturdays and Sundays; otherwise the cost is $5.

Children under 44" always ride free.
